Historical/Biographical Notes

William L. G. Peirce of Lincoln was born 1830, son of William Peirce and Jane (Green) Peirce. Isabel M. Carret of Dedham was born 1831 in Cuba where her family had business interests, daughter of Joseph Carret and Eliza H. Carret. They married in 1855, and had four children, Alice, Amos, Jane, and William. William L. G. Peirce, an apothecary, (also listed as a farmer) was drafted into the 12th Regiment, MVI, to serve in the Civil War. In 1864 he transferred to the 39th Regiment, MVI. He was mustered out in 1865 at the conclusion of hostilities. Isabel died in 1888, William in 1901. William C. Peirce, son of William L. G. Peirce, was a farmer of note in Lincoln, operating a market garden and breeding and raising fowl. W. C. Peirce also served as Lincoln Town Clerk in the early 20th century.

Scope and Content

The collection comprises letters written to Isabel Carret from the 1840s through the 1870s, from relatives and friends. Also included are letters written by William L. G. Peirce to Isabel Carret in the 1850s prior to their marriage, and letters to and from William during his service in the Civil War. Other letters include letters from family to and from Cuba during business or pleasure trips, mostly during the winter of 1872/1873. Other items in the collection relate to Peirce family farm in Lincoln and include property deeds, bills for agricultural supplies and household expenses, ephemera, and miscellaneous items from the late 1700s to the 1980s.

The collection is arranged into five series of letters by recipient, author, or folder, with Series and Subseries arrangement taken from folders. An additional seven series includes deeds and legal documents, records relating to the Peirce farm, ephemera, and miscellaneous.
